OLDHAM CONTEST CASE HEARING ON JAN. 23

House Passes Rules Endorsed By
Democratic Majority—Doings
In Legislature

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 12.—When Representative Arch L. Hamilton Fayette county, reported the rules as recommended by the Rules Committee in the House of Representatives Wednesday, a parliamentary battle was precipitated, over the question of whether the Rules Committee should have charge for the final twenty, or only ten days, of the session. In the end, the contention for 20 days, advocated by the Rules Committee, was upheld, by a vote of 60 to 33.

The most important bill introduced Wednesday was the minimum wage act, which was sent to the desk by Senator Robert C. Simmons, of Covington. The bill provides for the creation of a Minimum Wage Commission for three members, one an employer and one a representative of the public, one of the trio to be a woman.

The bill provides an annual appropriation of $5,000 to defray the expenses of the board, whose members are to receive $10 per day while actually in session, and their necessary traveling expenses, and are permitted to employ a secretary, who must be a woman.

Under the provisions of the act a minimum wage is provided for women, and for minors of both sexes between the ages of 14 and 18.

Miss Jeanette Rankin, of Montana, first woman to be elected to Congress, is here in the interest of the bill. It was referred to the committee on judiciary.

Litigants will be save large sums, according to Senator R. C. Simmons, of Covington, if his bill providing for declaratory judgments becomes a law. This bill, which is sponsored by many members of the bench and bar, gives to persons who may have "agreed to disagree" the right to go before a court of competent jurisdiction, and outline their situation, and to obtain from that court a definition of their legal rights in the case. In other words, it is not necessary to effect a legal breach to keep the court status of any situation which may arise, if the contention of the backers of the bill is upheld.

Hearing in the contest of R. C. Oldham, Richmond, for the seat of Senator William Wallace, Richmond, today were postponed until January 23, upon motion of Senator Frank Daugherty, member of the committee appointed to hear the charges.

Senator Moss is preparing the bill authorizing a statewide vote on the $50,000,000 road bond issue which will be introduced in a few days.

"There has been considerable misunderstanding of this proposition," he said. "The bonds, under this plan, if they carry the next election, will be issued in blocks of $10,000,000 each, for the ensuing five years, and are to bear interest at not to exceed 5 per cent. It is fully expected that the issue can be floated at an average of 4 1/2 per cent. Funds now received for roads are to be used for the amortization of the issue, and three cents of the present levy of the general property tax to the same purpose. There is absolutely no intention to increase taxes."

JOHN M. LEWIS DIES AT COLLEGE HILL

John M. Lewis, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of College Hill, passed away Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of his niece, Mrs. W. F. Tribble. He was 89 years of age, and has spent his entire life in that section. He was a member of the Methodist church. Surviving him are three nieces, Mrs. C. M. and W. F. Tribble and Mrs. J. W. Martin. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, interment at College Hill Cemetery.

NEW DEPUTY SHERIFF GETS BUSY AT ONCE

Deputy Sheriff Ben Davis, of Berea, who was recently named by Sheriff Deatherage, immediately got busy in his section. He went out to the Big Hill section and brought in Mort Morris and Jeff Settles, against whom old warrants for violation of the liquor laws had been pending for some time. The men had never been arrested, however. Each gave bond in the sum of $300, with Joe Morris and A. P. Stetles as sureties respectively.

HIGH COMPLIMENTS FOR JIM WAGERS

Few county officials have ever had so many compliments passed upon their conduct of their books and affairs as did ex-Circuit Clerk James W. Wagers the other day. Assistant State Inspector and Examiner Tom Morrow, brother of Gov. Morrow, checked over Mr. Wagers' books and accounts most carefully before they were turned over to Luther Todd, Mr. Wagers' successor. Mr. Morrow complimented the condition in which he found Mr. Wagers' office most highly. He said:

"I want to congratulate you on the manner in which you kept your records. I am marking your office O. K. The office of circuit clerk is the most complicated in the court house, and you have set a record that your successor or anyone else is going to have trouble equalling."

FEARLESS OFFICER STOPS OVER HERE

Charles Gurley, chief of police of Irvine, stopped over in Richmond Thursday en route home from Anderson county, Tennessee, where he was concerned with a trial in court. Some years ago, it seems, that Gurley shot an ex-sheep at a moonshine still, and a prosecution has been pending in the case. Gurley was represented by several of the most prominent Tennessee attorneys and by Hon. Robert L. Pope, of Whitley county, Ky., the attorneys having been engaged by the Law and Order League. Gurley was a deputy sheriff in Tennessee for 20 years and made a reputation as a fearless officer after lawbreakers. He has been giving the bootleggers and moonshiners of Estill county a touch of the same medicine since his appointment as chief of police of Irvine a short time ago.

New Physician at Waco

Dr. B. R. Gibson, of Pike county, has moved to Waco for the practice of his profession and has taken possession of Dr. Vard Taylor's residence, which he purchased several months ago. Dr. Taylor has not yet decided on any future plans.

MEXIA, TEXAS RUNNING WILD

Governor Declares Martial Law
In Effort To Stop Lawless-
ness In New Oil Town

(By Associated Press)
Austin, Texas, Jan. 12.—Martial law at Mexia, Texas, and the surrounding oil field, was proclaimed today by Gov. Pat M. Neff. Brigadier General Wolters, of Houston, has power to summon such Texas national guard forces as are necessary to enforce law with respect to saloons and gambling resorts.

The governor's proclamation that the Mexia situation is intolerable, asserted that highway robbery is frequent, sometimes accompanied by murder. Gambling houses are in operation day and night under the protection of armed men. Intoxicating liquor is sold over the bar "and there is now," he added, "immediate danger of insurrection, tumult, riot and serious personal danger to the inhabitants and property of citizens in that territory."

Here's What's Doing In Mexia

(By Associated Press)
Mexia, Texas, Jan. 12.—Overnight a tented city arose. From an apparently sleepy little town of 3,000 population in October, 1921, where old settlers farmed for a living and eked out a bare existence from their lands; where they rode cow horses to "town" and hitched them to a hitching post and where even the Town Hall bell had not tolled for years because of the cowbells and bird nests—to a bustling city of 30,000 people, and all in a few months, this is the recent record of Mexia an old-time Texas town which is feeling the effects of one of the numerous oil developments in the Southwest.

The population now consists of an assortment of oil field followers and thousands of men and women seeking employment, leaving an old field for the new, coming on trains from all parts of the United States, or in wagons, trucks or horseback, some bringing their assortment of household goods and camping outfits and finding from ten to a hundred men for every job and no place available for spending the night.

Consequently because of the exorbitant prices charged for a room, if one were lucky to secure one, hundreds of men, favored by the long-continued mild winter are sleeping on the grass along railroad tracks, public parking places and, in fact, anywhere they could. Overnight a bed in a tent marked "a place to flop" rent at from 50 cents a night to $3. "A night in a crude plank structure where one didn't know his bedfellow or the hundreds of others in the single room cost $5. Prices charged the few who were lucky enough to get in one of the few private dwellings vary, but all were high enough to satisfy the most fastidious millionaire. But men were glad to get a bed at any price and many could not find shelter except that provided by nature.

Rail traffic jumped hundreds of per cent. There are two trunk lines, the Houston and Texas Central and the Trinity and Brazos Valley, leading through here passenger traffic is very heavy while freight trains are frequently seen running three abreast, so heavy is the demand for oil machinery. One road is said to have spent $600,000 in enlarging its facilities.

The water situation is not altogether what could be desired. The water is procured from a spring a short distance from town, and although good water, it was nearly as high in price as gasoline. Some oil men, however, came along and drilled an oil well right side by side with the spring, "tapping" the water supply so badly that lately it has been entirely stopped. Water wagons have been requisitioned, and although they are busy all day and night hauling water to homes, restaurants and improvised "bunking houses," they are not sufficient to cover the field.

Consequently the town has been declared "very unsanitary" by citizens in heated arguments at the meetings of the city council, which is making every effort to remedy the situation. Mayor Riddle informed the irate citizens that this "could not be done over-

POOL WAREHOUSES TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Jan. 12.—General Manager James C. Stone, of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association, today announced the association expected to have its warehouses open for receiving tobacco between the 15th and 20th of this month.

S. A. DEATHERAGE IS HURT IN CINCINNATI

News came to Mrs. S. A. Deatherage early Thursday morning in a wire from W. S. Norris, of the Union Stock Yards, Cincinnati, that Mr. Deatherage had fallen, sustaining several fractured ribs and was suffering greatly from the soreness. His son Embury Deatherage, from Middletown, O., was notified of the accident and went to Cincinnati to be with him.

NEW SHERIFF "FEEDS" FRIENDS

Sheriff Elmer Deatherage entertained the new county officials and number of intimate political friends at dinner at Joe's Wednesday evening. The occasion was a sort of get-together affair for the new officials and it proved most delightful in every way. The "feed" was simply sumptuous and all did it ample justice. Turkey, old ham and all the delicacies were on the menu. Then the Sheriff acted as Toastmaster and called on most of those present for a few incongruous remarks.

The consensus of opinion seemed to be that Mr. Deatherage is going to make the best Sheriff old Madison has ever known and was generally agreed that the new county officials are all high-class men and will give the people the very best of service.

Those who sat around the festive board in addition to the popular Sheriff were Col. N. B. Deatherage, J. J. Greenleaf, James W. Wagers, Rev. H. W. Carpenter, Dr. R. L. Telford, A. R. Burnam, S. M. Sauley, Z. T. Rice, D. W. Kennedy, J. R. McKinney, Hugh M. Samuels, Woods Walker, J. W. Maupin, R. B. Terrill, W. S. Oldham, John Noland, Marshall Vaughn, Franklin Deatherage, Ben Davis, R. O. Moberly, John Simmons, J. G. Baxter, Ben F. Edwards, W. W. Adams, "Brother" Turley, Judge J. D. Goodloe, Judge W. R. Shackerford, Mrs. Elmer Deatherage, Mrs. C. F. Higgins, Miss Marianne Collins, Miss Mary Louise Deatherage, "Peep" Judy passed around Camel cigarettes to the crowd after the dinner and all voted it was good to have been there.

Getting a bath here is quite an experience, if indeed not a task. The old saying "if you want to do something big—wash an elephant," certainly has found parallel in Mexia. This luxury may be found, outside the woodland creeks, only in a downtown barber shop. The bath house is a stall in a wooden floored, planked in enclosure. Just plain pine planks are slippery, but the proprietors of the house have found that it is not necessary to maintain first aid kits because the boards are warped enough to allow the bather a foothold. "Cleanliness, after all, is next to godliness," but a bath in Mexia is next to the impossible.

But as for oil. There are a solid six miles of new derricks, drillers' outfits, tents, wooden buildings, and people where once there was the open prairie. A survey of all local lumber men shows that building completed or contracted for since October 1, totals between $3,500,000 and $5,000,000.

Gambling and drinking halls filled with dancing girls are open every night, and one may buy openly "red" and "corn" whisky at 50 cents a drink. There is no effort at closing them. The Winter Garden is the most flourishing of these. Here it is said fortunes have been lost overnight at the dice and roulette tables.

TOBACCO SHOWS BIG GAIN IN A YEAR

Average of Burley Sales For December Was $23.25 As Compared With $14.95 in '20

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 12.—Due to delay in completion of the organization of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association, made necessary by inability to operate until the organization was legalized, sales of burley tobacco throughout the district, in Kentucky were comparatively small during December, according to the monthly report of sales issued here by Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna. The total sales of the 1921 crop were 7,456,199 pounds at an average of $23.25 a hundred and of the 1920 or previous year's crop, 6,691,212 pounds at an average of $14.95.

One of the features of the month's sales of burley was the large amount of the 1920 crop which came onto the breaks during the month. This it is said, shows that reports given circulation last year, that many farmers were holding back their crops for during December growers sold a total of 2,307,320 pounds of the 1920 crop at an average of $20.24. Dealers sold 2,084,274 pounds of the 1920 crop at an average of $11.09, and resales of this crop crop totaled 2,309,617 pounds at an average of $13.10.

One sucker tobacco of the 1921 crop sold by growers totaled 5,122,842 pounds for an average of $13.42 a hundred and sales by dealers were 117,050 pounds at an average of $16.36, making a total of 5,239,892 pounds for an average of $13.48 a hundred. Sales of one sucker tobacco of the 1921 crop by growers totaled 70,425 pounds for an average of $4.50 a hundred; by dealers 41,120 pounds for an average of $11.43 and resales 5,990 pounds for an average of $5.71, making a total of 117,525 pounds for an average of $6.99 a hundred.

Unfired dark tobacco of the 1921 crop totaled 4,482,100 pounds for an average of $16.57 a hundred and sales for dealers were 50,735 pounds for an average of $15.52 a hundred, making a total of 4,532,835 pounds for an average of $16.65. Sales of the 1921 crop were confined to growers who sold 529,135 pounds for an average of $15.66 a hundred.

Sales of fired dark tobacco of the 1921 crop by growers were 5,537,35 pounds for an average of $15.36 a hundred; for dealers 409,470 pounds for an average of $16.25 and resales were 3,040 pounds for an average of $6.34 a hundred, making a total of 4,949,845 pounds for an average of $15.63 a hundred. Sales of the 1921 crop for growers were 2,650 pounds for an average of $10.42 a hundred and for dealers 58,950 pounds for an average of $7.72, making a total of 61,600 pounds for an average of $7.83 a hundred.

Sales of Green River tobacco of the 1921 crop for growers were 5,548,865 pounds for an average of $16.78 a hundred; for dealers 164,790 pounds for an average of $18.96, making a total of 5,992,885 pounds for an average of $16.78 a hundred. The total of all tobacco of the 1921 crop sold was 28,181,356 pounds for an average of $17.57 and of the 1920 crop 7,733,872 pounds for an average of $14.94.

VERSAILLES COMING FOR DOUBLE HEADER

Both the boys' and girls' basketball teams from Madison Hi play teams from Versailles here at the Madison Hi gym Friday night at 8 o'clock. The boys were victorious last week over Clark County Hi at Winchester. The last time the local fans saw them perform was before Christmas when they lost to Winchester City Hi. They have developed into a much faster aggregation since that game. In fact, they have progressed in every way. In passing they seem to be far superior to the work they showed against Winchester. They throw the ball with much more accuracy than on that date and cover the floor with greater speed. At caging the basket the Madisonians have gradually become real masters of that vital thing in basketball. Madison is considered stronger in her defense than offense. Due to the fine work of the guards they usually hold the enemy to very few points. They are by no means slow on the offense. With good passing they carry the ball from the enemy's territory many times within striking distance of their goal.

Coach Lassiter has made no definite announcement about his lineup, but Hurst and Clouse at guards, Harry Stone and Talton Stone at forwards and Joe Reeves at center are expected to get the call.

The girls, although defeated at Clark County Hi by the fair sex of that institution, expect to get on the winning side by victory over the Versailles team. The girls representing Madison are small, but make up for their size with speed and fighting spirit. They fight until the last whistle blows. This wonderful spirit, in which they surpass the boys of Madison, carried them to victory over Eastern Normal and Winchester female teams. Pass work and good goal shooting add to their effectiveness. Everybody come and help pull for Madison Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Capt. Stone Re-Appointed

(By Associated Press)

William Benton Has Close Call At Winchester

The following from the Winchester Sun will be of interest here as Mr. Benton is a son of Judge J. M. Benton and has many friends and relatives here: "William Benton is suffering from a bad cut on the nose inflicted by glass from the broken windshield, and severe bruises on the face and body and his automobile is demolished as the result of an accident in Lexington Saturday afternoon. Mr. Benton was driving out of the entrance to the Good Samaritan Hospital, on South Limestone, and while avoiding another car, his machine was struck by a street car. The automobile, a 7-passenger Buick, was completely wrecked. The driver was thrown across the steering wheel post, the wheel being broken by the impact, and he was unconscious for a brief period. He was taken into the Good Samaritan hospital, where his injuries were given attention."

BRIAND QUILTS AS FRENCH PREMIER

Sensation Caused In European Circles By French Premier
Quitting His Post

(By Associated Press)
Paris, France, Jan. 12.—Premier Briand submitted his resignation to President Millerand today after making a lengthy statement before the Chamber of Deputies, justifying his attitude in the Cannes conference.

Resignation Accepted

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Jan. 12.—President Millerand has accepted Briand's resignation and the whole cabinet went out of office with him.

It Upsets European Diplomacy

The announcement of the resignation of Premier Briand comes with startling suddenness at the moment of his concluding with Prime Minister Lloyd-George of Great Britain, the treaty designed to guarantee France's security against an unprovoked German attack. Although the text of the proposed pact has not been made public, Briand's political opponents have strongly objected to what they charged as excessive concessions granted by Briand on the subject of German reparations. His resignation also contains a dramatic element in that only this morning his cabinet was reported to be in complete accord with his policies at the Allied Supreme Council meeting at Cannes, whence he came yesterday to defend his actions there.

It's A Bombshell

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Jan. 12.—The resignation of Aristide Briand as Premier of France was received with almost a bombshell effect in Arms Conference circles, his action being considered likely to have a great effect on the decisions already reached or about to be reached.

When Secretary Hughes announced Briand's resignation to the heads of the several armament delegations, who were in conference with him at the time there were many expressions of dismay. "It is a very grave event," said one diplomat.

Economic Conference Off

(By Associated Press)
Geneva, Jan. 12.—An invitation by the Council of the League of Nations made to Allied Supreme Council at Cannes to cooperate in organizing at Genoa an economic conference has been declined by the Supreme Council acting on the suggestion of Prime Minister Lloyd-George, it was announced today.

PLANNING STUNTS FOR LEGION SHOW

"The Foolishness" of 1922, a timely travesty on Richmond's city council, will be one of the outstanding features of the second part or olio, as it is more generally called, of the American Legion minstrels at the Opera House Tuesday and Wednesday night, January 17 and 18.

The first part is christened the "High School of Minstrelsy," and is replete with the very latest songs and gags, and early in the evening the local favorites will begin getting in their good work. Among the songs introduced in the above mentioned first part, are: "Daddy, your Mamma is Lonesome for You," by Charles Nelson; "Down Yonder," Billy El der; "Strut Miss Lizzie," Weakly Stanifer; "They're Such Nice People," Tom Baxter; "I'm That Good Man," Gordon Hunt; "Only One Pal, After All," Charles Stanifer; "Crooning," June Wiggins; "They Needed a Song Bird in Heaven," Earl Umperhour; "Tuck Me To Sleep in My Old Tucky Home," J. C. Ballard; "Smile Through Your Tears," Dan Wintermute; "Any Old Port in a Storm," Rodes Terrill, and "Where the Lazy Mississippi Flows," Leonard Isaacs.

G. O. P. SENATORS DESERT NEWBERRY

Washington, Jan. 12—Further defection from Republican ranks in the Senator Truman H. Newberry case today made the lineup so close that it is a fair possibility that Vice President Calvin Coolidge will decide the issue.

Senator Wesley L. Jones, of Washington, republican, came out squarely on the Senate floor today against the Michigan man, subscribing to the legal points laid down Tuesday by Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, republican.

Senators Arthur Capper, of Kansas, republican, Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, republican, and Howard Sutherland, republican, of West Virginia, also were reported to be transferring today to the Newberry opponents.

Republican leaders conceded that Messrs. Capper, Sutherland and Jones had "quit," but claimed that a possibility exists that Mr. Willis will vote with the majority republicans.

Washington has in its foreign-born adult population only 26,276 persons, of whom 14,042 are men and 12,234 are women. The naturalized number 14,711, or 7,780 men and 6,925 women, while those of alien citizenship total 6,323, or 2,842 men and 3,481 women.

It will be noted in the above statistics that the total number of citizens and non-citizens will not equal the total alien-born enumerated by the census bureau. This is due to the fact that in practically all instances there is a considerable number whose citizenship status is yet to be reported, or which was not obtainable by the enumerators.

With the exception of New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, the number of foreign-born adults who have taken out their first papers have been eliminated in this article.

How to Make Child-birth Easier!

DO YOU wish to know how thousands and thousands of women have gone thru motherhood without knowing some of the pains and discomforts incident to childbirth? Listen to this:

Motherhood creates almost a new state of being for a woman.

As a result, new nerves, those heretofore restful and quiescent, spring into activity, they cry out, they tingle, they burn in their unrest.

The network of nerves across the abdomen, the loins, the back and other parts now become super-sensitive. All these nerves are being called on to perform unusual duties.

These nerves must be pacified and comforted; must be put in condition for the crisis that is pending.

If these nerves are not soothed and quieted, they may set up aggravated nerve tension, increasing in severity from month to month, sometimes even culminating in a nervous paralysis of the back and limbs. This leaves the mother-to-be in a condition where she is unable, fully, to meet the test when the climax of maternity arrives.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oils, greases and substitutes—they act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good.

Used by Expectant Mothers for Three Generations

Mother's Friend is used externally as a massage; and its purpose, thru daily use, is to gradually, gently and effectively relax the muscles and nerves involved in the function of child-bearing; to make the skin soft, pliable and elastic so that it may expand easily and naturally as the abdominal parts enlarge—thereby relieving the tension and strain on these muscles and nerves of the otherwise severe distension before delivery.

"I am willing and anxious to tell any mother about Mother's Friend. It did me so much good that I wouldn't be without it if it cost $5.00 a bottle. With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I only had a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Many doctors and nurses recommend Mother's Friend. It contains no narcotics, or habit-forming drugs and is perfectly harmless. All drug stores carry Mother's Friend.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?

WHAT THE MARKETING ACT PROVIDES FOR

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 12.—By a vote of 91 to 0, the Kentucky House of Representatives passed the Bingham co-operative marketing act, creating a new legislative record in regard to the time required to pass a bill through both houses. The Bingham act passed the Senate unanimously last Thursday, the vote being 3 to 0.

Twelve other states—Texas, Arkansas, Arizona, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Washington, Idaho, Montana, North Dakota and Kansas—have similar laws, California and New Mexico have adopted the principle of co-operative marketing in their laws and Oregon and Wisconsin have taken sections from some of these laws and made them into law.

Judge Bingham drew the Kentucky act, assisted by Aaron Sapiro, California marketing genius and lawyer, and the House passed the Senate bill in the time required for a roll call after the Californian had concluded a speech explaining the measure to the House in committee of the whole.

The purpose of the act is declared to be to eliminate speculation and waste and "encourage the intelligent and orderly marketing of agricultural products." It applied to all kinds of agricultural products and is not confined to the producers of burley tobacco.

Twenty or more agricultural producers may form a co-operative association without capital stock for the purpose of handling their own products on a non-profit, non-speculative basis, enable co-operatives to borrow money, limits membership to actual producers and defines the procedure of organization.

The act limits the amount of stock with the voting privilege that may be held by any member so as to prevent centralized control of any such association and limits the liability of members of such an association to practically the same basis as ordinary stockholders' liability.

Specific remedies are provided for breach of contract by a member, providing for injunctions and liquidated damages. Permission is given for one class of co-operatives to unite with another, should it be found desirable for the purpose of greater efficiency and increased service.

Fraud on the part of speculative buyers, who might pretend to organize co-operative associations, is prevented by prohibiting the use of the word "co-operative" by any association not organized under the provisions of the law.

The law makes it a misdemeanor to spread false reports about co-operative associations and provides for the recovery of damages from those who may persuade growers to break their contracts with the associations.

Annual reports of the business of such associations are required to be made to the College of Agriculture on forms prepared by the dean of that college. Fines of $100 to $1,000 are provided for persons who may induce growers to breach their contract, together with civil liability for damages in the sum of $500 for each offense.

Warehousemen who may permit or encourage the delivery of tobacco or other crops in violation of the act are liable to damages to the association in the same amount, in addition to attorney's fees and costs.

Because of the "demoralized condition of the farming interests of the state," which is declared to exist, an emergency is declared and the bill, therefore, becomes a law with the signature of the governor.

HISTORIC SOHO DOOMED TO FALL

London's Funny Little Bohemian Quarter to Be Swept Away.

CITY IN NEED OF MORE SPACE

Many Years Ago This Section of London Was Regarded as a Very Fashionable Dwelling Quarter—There All Races Meet.

London.—Dinky, funny, little Soho, known to all tourists and the affluent half of the American expeditionary forces, is about to pull down its faded pink curtains, fold up its murky little shops and silently steal into the dusty pages of history—by request.

London has need of space and, cruelly, London has no need for funny little Soho. In which case that small, historic prowling spot of temperamental bohemians, which is supposed to have derived its name from the luke of Monmouth's famous war cry, "Soho," at Sedgemoor, intends to take itself apart, brick by brick, until it is no more.

Gone will be the window of the tallow grocer, lately so gay with swirls of pale green spinach paste, the blue spun spaghetti, the deep purple of chives, violet liquor, the shining festoons of red peppers and the tiny diamond cakes sprinkled with pink sugar.

Rich Treasures in Filth. Not again will one finger and yarn or the silky rugs from Afghanistan and Persia, the fat ivory elephants from India and the blue and gold Chinese embroideries one finds in the hidden dirty corners of Soho.

Many years ago this small section of London was regarded as a very fashionable dwelling quarter, but after a time trim mounds and highly referenced butlers were glimpsed no longer in Soho's haughty doorways. Buried name plates and shining brass knockers began to disappear and then, indeed, it seemed that severe respectability had deserted little Soho.

Its quaint, cobble streets took to creeping acquaintance and short-cutting through the alleys of sordid neighbors, mandering around in circles and cutting in too late to clean up for dinner, but nobody cared. Its bright windows got dust and soot in their eyes and grew grumpy from the fog, but no one took the trouble to wipe them. Its rent doors grew weary of keeping up appearances and shed hot tears that distorted the paint and uncovered scratches and gashes on their neglected cheeks.

Its back doors sagged sadly on rusty and broken hinges. They creaked painfully in a final, pitiful protest when they were steadily pushed open to admit the Armenians, the Portuguese and the Greeks.

Where All Races Meet. Today Soho is a rather badly kept mound of bohemia. Turkish, Chinese, French and Italian cafes beckon on every side and are well patronized by those who grow weary of a too frequent English diet of boiled mutton, greens or an unfathomable origin andasty white sauce.

Not long ago I spent an afternoon in Soho and found begging as usual and business at least on its feet. One may buy anything from a pennyworth of steamed eels in vinegar to the last cord in a full bonnet, from the rickety old barrows that line and crowd the curb on certain streets.

The restaurants in Soho are very interesting. The food is always attractively served and if the quality isn't strictly first class the price is. One might expect to, but doesn't save my large number of the elusive shillings. The most popular cafes charge placidly prices without a blush or a palinode.

Papa, all done up in dress clothes and a gleaming—in places—celluloid shirt front, takes the order. Mamma hollers it down the back stairs to a mysterious uncle; one daughter bears it in triumph to your table, and the other obligingly offers to run out to buy your litter because it is after hours—and D. O. R. A. prohibits the sale of liquor in restaurants at certain times each day.

But no longer will the dinky little shops call one, nor the restaurants amuse. Funny little Soho is going away.

Two Bean Pods on One Stem.

Columbus, O.—"My yard is full of them," declared Thomas J. Riley, local resident, as he displayed two bean pods on one stem. One pod was 34½ inches long and the other 33½ inches in length. And Riley does not claim to be a champion bean raiser.

Given 24 Hours to Meditate and Pray

Syracuse, N. Y.—Two girls, arrested for shop-lifting, were sentenced to "24 hours of meditation and prayer" by Police Court Justice Shove.

"Spend 24 hours in meditation and prayer," said the judge. "Search your conscience and bare your faults before your eyes. Then let me know you are sorry—not that you were caught, but because you stole."

New Orleans celebrated January 8th the 107th anniversary of Jackson's victory over the British.

Two Bears Devour Honey and Bees

Chesham, Wash.—William D. Hosh, Sr., a farmer of the Alpha neighborhood, lost two stands of good bees and the honey the latter had stored when two bears visited his apiary. The bears called in the night and ate a hive of bees as well as the honey. Their appetites whetted by the sweets, they returned the following night and got away with a second hive of bees and all their honey. The third night Charles Hanson, a neighbor, was waiting for them with a gun. The bears ambled away in the dark.

Better Advertising For Better Business

BUILDING THE ADVERTISEMENT

Here's an easy way to go about making up your ad.

First, lay out with pencil and ruler on paper, the exact dimensions of your space.

Next, try to find some distinctive way to use the border lines. If you are advertising furniture, a heavy border will be in keeping. If your line is dry goods, select a dainty border.

If you want to use a cut, see where you think it will "go" best in your space. Then an effective headline. Sketch it in.

Now figure out the best place for the type, and rule lines indicate it.

Now you are ready to write your text-matter, and to indicate the place for your name or signature.

Try this plan, and see how much better it is than "going at it blindly."
